MATT CAMPBELL HEAD COACH / MT. UNION (2002) 5TH SEASON AT IOWA STATE (26-25)

Matt Campbell has changed the culture and his footprint is all over the success of the Iowa State football program since taking over as head coach prior to the 2016 season.

Campbell initiated his rebuilding plan and laid the foundation by imploring his team to "Trust The Process." His team listened, sparking Iowa State to one of its most fruitful periods in the history of the program.

National rankings and bowl berths have become the norm thanks to Campbell's leadership. The two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year (2017, 2018) has led the Cyclones to three-straight bowl games, yearly appearances in the national rankings and a 23-16 record in the last three seasons, second-best three-year stretch in Iowa State football history.

Campbell's recent three-year run at ISU has caught the nation's attention with its drastic improvement, placing Iowa State football into the national rankings and the college football spotlight. Iowa State has appeared in the College Football Playoff Rankings in each of the last three seasons, joining Oklahoma as the only two Big 12 schools to accomplish that since 2017.

Campbell, who has fostered a player-driven atmosphere with his contagious personality, owns 26.1 percent of Iowa State's all-time victories over ranked teams, defeating six opponents ranked in the nation's top-25 since 2017, a total ranking in the top-15 nationally during that span.

Records have been shattered in the Campbell era on offense and defense, including total offense (444.3 in 2019) and sacks (33 in 2018). His teams play with precision on both sides of the ball, boasting a defense that led the Big 12 in fewest points allowed (22.9) in 2018 and an offense that ranked in the top-20 nationally in yards per play (6.45) in 2019.

Campbell is the first and only coach in Iowa State history to defeat every team in the league at least once during his Cyclone tenure and produced three of Iowa State's four winning seasons in Big 12 Conference history (1996-present).

Iowa State tied for third in the Big 12 in each of the last two seasons (2018, 2019), marking only the fourth and fifth time in the last 60 years the Cyclones have finished third or better in the final league standings.

The Iowa State's offense was the most prolific in the history of the program in 2019, helping the Cyclones finish tied for third in the Big 12 with a 7-6 overall record and a 5-4 league mark.

School records fell in the following offensive categories in 2019: total offense (5,776), passing offense (4,047), yards per play (6.45) and points scored (418). Ten times during the season the Cyclones generated over 400 yards of total offense and eight times Iowa State had more total yards than its opponent.

A win over No. 22 Texas (23-21) on a last-second, walk-off field goal was Campbell's sixth victory over a ranked opponent in the last three seasons, his first over the Longhorns and a signature win during the season.

The Cyclones appeared in the preseason top-25 for the first time since 1978 and became one of two schools in the Big 12 (Oklahoma) to make an appearance in the College Football Playoff poll in each of the last three seasons.

The offense was led by All-Big 12 QB Brock Purdy, who broke virtually every school passing record, including passing yards (3,982), total offense (4,231), completions (312) and passing touchdowns (27).

Tight end Charlie Kolar was his favorite target, earning Second-Team All-America honors by the FWAA and Academic All-America accolades.

The 2018 Iowa State football team once again captured the imagination of college football fans by proving the 2017 campaign wasn't a fluke.

Despite a 1-3 beginning to the season, Campbell kept the Cyclones on the right path by making an amazing turnaround with a five-game winning streak, the best single-season conference victory string in school history en route earning Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year accolades.

The streak began with a victory at No. 25 Oklahoma State (48-42) and was followed by a dominating win over No. 6 West Virginia (30-14), holding the high-powered Mountaineers to 152 yards of total offense, their lowest total since 1995.

The Cyclones broke the school record for most conference wins in a season (six) and also proved to be a tough out at home, ending the season on a six-game winning streak at MidAmerican Energy Field at Jack Trice Stadium, tying the school record (six) for most season victories in the stadium.

Iowa State wrapped up its second-straight bowl berth with a spot in the Valero Alamo Bowl, finishing the regular season with an 8-4 mark and tying for third in the Big 12 standings (6-3), its highest finish in 40 years.

The Cyclones appeared in all six College Football Playoff rankings behind a stingy defense and Purdy as a true freshman signal-caller.

Iowa State led the Big 12 in scoring defense (22.9) and rushing defense (115.0), holding all but two teams to below their season scoring average.

Purdy took over signal-calling duties in the fifth game of the season, promptly leading the Cyclones to five-straight victories and igniting the offense. Purdy had help from All-Americans David Montgomery (RB) and Hakeem Butler (WR), who both tallied over 1,000 yards from scrimmage, the first time in school history the Cyclones had a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season.

Butler shattered the school record for receiving yards in a season with 1,318 yards and was named a Second-Team All-American by The Athletic.

Purdy set school records in passing efficiency (169.9) and completion percentage (66.4), and tossed 16 touchdown passes.

⇒2017

The 2017 Iowa State football season will go down as one of its best in recent history thanks to Campbell's coaching efforts.

Picked to finish ninth in the Big 12 Conference, the Cyclones capped off their outstanding 2017 campaign with a victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl over Memphis, just the fourth bowl win in the history of the program. He was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Iowa State surged into AP Top-25 poll for the first time since 2005 thanks to a perfect 4-0 mark in the month of October where it defeated two top-5 teams in Oklahoma and TCU.

Prior to the season, Iowa State was 1-56-2 all-time vs. teams ranked in the top-5 of the AP poll, tripling its all-time career total.

The victory over Oklahoma (38-31) in Norman was Iowa State's first-ever win over a top-5 opponent on the road and one of the school's signature triumphs. Iowa State followed up the OU win with a 14-7 victory over No. 4 TCU three weeks later, helping the Cyclones garner their first-ever appearance in the College Football Playoff rankings.

*did not coach in bowl game

Iowa State finished the 2017 season with an 8-5 overall record and an upper-half finish in the Big 12 at 5-4.

Three of ISU's wins were against ranked opponents (Oklahoma, TCU, Memphis) and five were on the road, breaking or equaling school marks in both categories.

Campbell perfected a mix of an opportunistic offense and a stingy defense for the success in 2017. ISU scored over 40 points five times during the season, tying the school record for 40-point games in a season.

Defensively, the Cyclones posted historic numbers, ranking in the top-30 nationally in scoring defense (26th, 20.9) and turnover margin (16th, +10). Iowa State was second in the Big 12 (league games only) in scoring defense (18.9) and total defense (357.2), holding nine of 10 conference opponents to at least 10 points below their season average.

The Cyclones broke school marks in fewest turnovers and fewest fumbles lost in a season, going nearly the entire year before losing their first fumble, tying the NCAA FBS all-time record along the way.
